The Return of Public Masses Let us Rejoice and be Glad!

Our parishes have developed a plan to ensure the safety and well-being of those parishioners who wish to attend. Note that the dispensation for the Sunday obligation continues. Below are some important points:

- Seating will be allowed in every other pew, with maximum seating at 25% capacity. Seating will be first-come, first-served.
- People not of the same household must sit at least six feet apart.
- The hymnals/missalettes have been removed. Worship aids will be available, but must be taken home after Mass.
- Hand sanitizer will be available at the entrances.
- All attendees are strongly encouraged to wear masks.
- Communion will be given at the conclusion of Mass, after the final blessing.
- We ask those that can stay after Mass to disinfect. Supplies will be provided.
- Those who are ill, even a little, and those at high risk should not attend.

Of Interest to All

We welcome Fr. Thompson to our tri-parish cluster this weekend! We hope that you will find your time here blessed and spiritually fulfilling. We are glad to have you as our pastor and look forward to our time together!

The new mailing address for Fr. Frerichs is 117 3rd Street West, Wabasha MN 55981.

During the times you can't physically attend Mass, you can still reach out to Him by making a Spiritual Communion in prayer! When watching the Mass online or on TV, pray the following during Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Christ's Love Compels Us: a discernment retreat for those who want to share God's goodness. July 31-Aug 2 at IHM Seminary. Do you feel a nudge (or burning fire) to share what God has done for you with others? But perhaps you don't know how, or need encouragement? Come to this retreat! Song, holy silence, spiritual talks, discussion, adoration, and Mass to learn how to be better evangelists in our home and community. More information and registration here:

The American flag now flying at St. Anthony was presented to Gene Stevens at his father's funeral. In honor of Gene and his dad it has found a new home.

On Sunday, May 24, we welcomed five new members into the Catholic Church when they made a Profession of Faith. Under the guidance of Fr. Frerichs and Peg Daley, these five people learned what it means to be Catholic through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). They are pictured above, with their sponsors behind them: Mike Ketchum (Mary Ketchum), Lynda Duncanson (Holly Kurth), Nicole Mitchell (Lance Kurth), Nick Wojahn (Jessica Wojahn), and Jill Bonow (Taylor Bonow).

Friday evening will be an evening of song, adoration, and holy silence, a time to sink into the Holy Spirit. It is highly recommended, but if you can only come Saturday and Sunday, it can be missed. The retreat talks start promptly at 9:00 a.m. Saturday; those arriving Saturday should arrive by 8:30 a.m. More information and registration here:

Mini Story: Fr. Tim Reker – Missionary Discipleship

The role of the Parish Council book studies and formation opportunities is to help them understand what the current situation in the church is and explains how we might respond by forming disciples. It lights a fire, asking the question: “What do we need to do now?” It isn’t just up to the priest to evangelize; in fact, the parish council and other members of the church have a large role in making the parish more alive. The faith is no longer a cultural Catholicism: it is changing drastically with the younger generations. If we are going to have people connected and committed to the church, we must help them develop a personal relationship with God, Jesus, and the church, and provide opportunities to be involved in our church communities as well. We are preparing parishioners to have answers when questioned about their faith.

Sunday Reflections (Carol Zuegner, Creighton University)

Have you had the experience of talking and listening to someone and feeling as if that person might as well be speaking a different language? It’s a conversation with little understanding and no communication. Or a conversation that seems to go in circles with each person trying to make his or her point and the other person not listening, not getting it, not understanding.

I thought of meetings like that and conversations like that when I read the first reading today where the gathered Jews were amazed that after the Holy Spirit rested on each of them as tongues of fire, they could understand the multitude of languages around them. How wonderful to be able to understand, to hear what people are saying even if they seem to be speaking another language. The Holy Spirit can help in that understanding, in helping me find God in all people. If I am finding God in all people – even the ones who annoy me – I can find some way to listen and to understand and to communicate.

We can ask the Holy Spirit to breathe that gift of understanding into us, to refresh us like a great strong wind that blows away the dust and cobwebs. We have to be still, to listen to that Holy Spirit, to the best part of each of us, encouraging us and giving us the strength to do more than we thought we could.
