The Return of Public Masses Let us Rejoice and be Glad!

Our parishes have developed a plan to ensure the safety and well-being of those parishioners who wish to attend. Note that the dispensation for the Sunday obligation continues. Below are some important points:

- Seating will be allowed in every other pew, with maximum seating at 25% capacity. Seating will be first-come, first-served.
- People not of the same household must sit at least six feet apart.
- The hymnals/missalettes have been removed. Worship aids will be available, but must be taken home after Mass.
- Hand sanitizer will be available at the entrances.
- All attendees are strongly encouraged to wear masks.
- Communion will be given at the conclusion of Mass, after the final blessing.
- We ask those that can stay after Mass to disinfect. Supplies will be provided.
- Those who are ill, even a little, and those at high risk should not attend.

Of Interest to All

We welcome Fr. Horihan to our tri-parish cluster this weekend. Fr. Horihan is the Rector at IHM Seminary in Winona. He or one of the other priests from the seminary will be with us for weekend Masses in June and July. We are glad to have them join us!

During those times you can't physically attend Mass, you can still reach out to Him by making a Spiritual Communion in prayer! When watching the Mass online or on TV, pray the following during Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The virtual Catholic Marriage Summit will be held June 11-13. This is a way to build up happy, healthy, and holy marriages. If you are...

- Excited about making the good parts of your marriage great...
- Committed to making the weak parts strong...
- And open to renewing all the things in between...

The 2020 Catholic Marriage Summit will show you how to get the marriage you want from the marriage you have! Never before have so many amazing Catholic couples come together to be inspired and learn from some of the most well-known and loved experts in the world! There is no cost for this summit. To register, go to <https://www.joyfuleverafter.org>.

Pope's Prayer Intention for June: The Way of the Heart. We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

The Mayo Clinic Hospice is offering a free one-day camp for children and teens (ages 5-17) who have experienced the death of a significant person in their life. We are proud to offer this event at no charge to campers; thanks to the generous support from both Rochester Methodist and St. Mary's Volunteer Leadership Councils utilizing funds generated by hospital gift shop profits at both campuses. If you know of anyone who might benefit from the grief camp experience, please share the information. If you have any questions please call Mayo Clinic Hospice at 507-284-4002 or 1-800-679-9084 or email at rsthospicebereavement@mayo.edu.

Loving God, Creator of Heaven, Earth, and all therein contained. Open our minds and touch our hearts, so that we can be part of Creation, your gift. Be present to those in need in these difficult times, especially the poorest and most vulnerable. Help us to show creative solidarity as we confront the consequences of the global pandemic. Make us courageous in embracing the changes required to seek the common good. Now more than ever, may we all feel interconnected and interdependent. Enable us to succeed in listening and responding to the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor. May their current sufferings become the birth-pangs of a more fraternal and sustainable world. We pray through Christ our Lord, under the loving gaze of Mary Help of Christians, Amen.

Christ's Love Compels Us: A discernment retreat for those who want to share God's goodness. July 31-August 2 at IHM Seminary. Do you feel a nudge (or burning fire) to share what God has done for you with others? But perhaps you don't know how, or need encouragement? Come to this retreat! Song, holy silence, spiritual talks, discussion, adoration, and Mass to learn how to be better evangelists in our home and community. Friday evening will be an evening of song, adoration, and holy silence, a time to sink into the Holy Spirit. It is highly recommended, but if you can only come Saturday and Sunday, it can be missed. The retreat talks start promptly at 9:00 a.m. Saturday; those arriving Saturday should arrive by 8:30 a.m. More information and registration here:

Sunday Reflection

The Many Sides of Love

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son. (John 3: 16)

Moses climbed Mount Sinai to pray. There in a cloud stood the Lord. The Lord assured Moses: I am mercy, kindness, and faithfulness. These were not the names that Moses expected. The scrappy Jewish community had scorned God at many turns. Moses was braced for wrath, threats, and punishment. Instead of a tempest, gentle rain fell on the prostrate man. Moses implored God to stay close as they stumbled through the desert in search of home.

Many proclaim that God is one. But often this oneness transcends the busy scenes of life, our actual hopes and fears. From this cloud no words are spoken. This God dwells beyond earthly dimensions in the unnamable void where our concrete concerns mean nothing.

This blank oneness is not the unity of the Trinity. We do not sing “glory and praise forever” to the abyss. The oneness of God stirs with the motion of love. Love gives birth. He who is begotten is cherished. The spirit dwells in the love of God for God. God swells with the fullness of life, and the world bursts forth. This world is not wretched. It does not deserve constant complaints. God so loves this world that he gave his only Son. Jesus shared this earthly life with us. The world is worthy of praise.

Who condemns the world? Some focus on the afterlife as our only home. Others prize indifference and strive not to care. Some confine the world to material entities moving in space and time. Nothing in this universe is good or bad. Values are projected onto the things that give us pleasure or pain. The apple is good because its sweetness pleases me. No beauty exists until humans create it. We condemn the world when we deny the goodness already there in the chains of DNA, tectonic plates, dark matter, sand hill cranes in flight, babies learning to speak.

The spirit bestows gifts. Jesus shows us the way. From the one exalted above all forever comes power. The sign of the cross names us. Like every creature, we belong to God. Born of love, we are here to give ourselves away.
