PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Jesus, Divine Shepherd of souls, you called the Apostles to be fishers of men. Send us holy priests, O Lord through the intercession of Mary, Mother and Model of all vocations. Let your call be heard and answered by generous and courageous men to meet the pressing needs of your Church and the world. Come, Lord, do not delay. Send to your Church holy priests! Amen.

St. Rose News and Notes

Faith Formation at St. Rose will begin with a Welcome Mass for all students and their families on Wednesday, September 28th at 6:30 pm. That will be followed by an ice cream social in the hall and a chance for both students and parents to meet their teachers this year. Please be sure to register your students. This can be done online at www.st-rose.org/FF. I am still looking for catechists for 1st and 4th grade. Please consider sharing your time and helping with teaching our faith to the youth. If you are interested, please reach out to Ashley Gossen at srcff@hbc.com or 507-604-0016.

Immaculate Conception Community: Greetings to all members of our Immaculate Conception, Wilson "parish". Father Chinnappa Pothireddy, Pastor of St. Rose of Lima cluster, Lewiston, to which our parish was merged on February 19th 2022, is planning to and looking forward to having Mass in our Immaculate Conception, now called "oratory", on Saturday, September 24, at 11 a.m. We are writing to invite you to come for all of us to celebrate together. There will be a pot-luck meal following the Mass and time to visit and share our lives from the past 6 months as we adjust to new parishes and ways of celebrating with many new people.

St Anthony Church Altura are planning a meeting of the volunteers and councils in October.

My Dear Parishioners,

In the time of Jesus wealthy merchants and landowners often appointed managers to look after their day-to-day business affairs. Jesus tells the story in today's Gospel about just such a manager or steward, who is about to be dismissed because he has been careless and wasteful with his master's property. The manager acts very quickly to ingratiate himself with his master's debtors, all of whom will then owe him favors when he is out of a job and is either too weak or too embarrassed to do more humble labor to support himself.

The master compliments the dishonest steward, because he knows that the new promissory notes reflect what the debtors actually owe him, minus the extra charges the steward would previously have skimmed off for himself. This underlines the fact that the master in this story is just as dishonest as the manager because he is aware of the graft and has silently permitted it. Is it surprising that Jesus asks us—whom he calls "the children of light" (Luke 16:8)—to be just as shrewd as these dishonest men?

Not really. Jesus makes it very clear that he wants us to be as sharp-witted and quick to act as the dishonest steward and his boss with what our heavenly Father entrusts to us, whether it is property, personal abilities, money, health, or life itself. In other words, Jesus is praising the steward's method, not his purpose. What Jesus wants us to see is that the real enemy of discipleship is not unbelief but laziness—the constant postponing of full commitment to the life of faith and what that calls us to be and do. Imagine what could happen if we all began right now to use all the blessings God has given us in order to build up God's kingdom!

Keep smiling.
